

About Dunamis

What is Dunamis?

We are a co-location company where our customers own the mining server(s) and we host, maintain and monitor the equipment. We are not a broker, trader, or handler of securities or currencies. See our Legal Compliance document for details.

Vision:

Our goal is to become the world's largest co-location company by offering turn key mining solutions giving the big business mining advantages no matter the size of the customer account. All accounts (Large or Small) receive the same technical support and same pricing.

What we do:

Our lease contracts grant access to micro space within our facilities and come with our technical support and expertise. We offer a completely turn key system to create a profitable mining solution for every customer.

The Dunamis Advantage:

Because of our global reach and reputation, the top mining equipment manufacturing companies in the industry are partnering with us. We facilitate the purchase of world class equipment that is highly efficient, has a low cost of ownership and a quick break even point. We employ top industry talent to identify the best crypto currencies to mine, resulting in a world class, highly profitable mining experience.
